

cooltech TREATMENT CHECKLIST

1	Patient's pre-treatment weight and measurements taken.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2	Patient discussion about pre and post discomfort.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3	Take baseline photograph(s).	<input type="checkbox"/>
4	All materials are ready (pillows, towels, gel pads, stencils, marker, etc).	<input type="checkbox"/>
5	Checked machine ready for treatment (no error messages on screen, no strange sounds, etc).	<input type="checkbox"/>
6	Treatment areas marked up correctly with patient standing up.	<input type="checkbox"/>
7	Machine setting based on treatment area protocols and choose the correct handpiece (s).	<input type="checkbox"/>
8	Check the handpieces are connected securely.	<input type="checkbox"/>
9	Physically show unopened pad to patient and say , "I am now opening a new gel pad for your treatment."	<input type="checkbox"/>
10	Important: Lay unopened gel pad on flat surface, check for any damage on the packaging, and spread gel evenly through the pad as gel may pool during storage.	<input type="checkbox"/>
11	Ensure treatment areas are clean and dry.	<input type="checkbox"/>
12	Open the packaging as per instructions and check that gel distribution is even across the entire pad.	<input type="checkbox"/>
13	Placement of gel pad in line with the marked area and gel distribution is double checked to promote treatment safety.	<input type="checkbox"/>
14	Ensure any air bubbles are carefully smoothed out.	<input type="checkbox"/>
15	Ensure no unauthorised gel or other material present in the treatment area before placement of the handpiece (s) correctly on the centre of the gel pad.	<input type="checkbox"/>
16	After suction is applied, perform a 360 check and say, "I am now performing a 360 check around the handpiece."	<input type="checkbox"/>
17	Check how patient is going, patient has a call bell and can reach out to clinic.	<input type="checkbox"/>
18	You can perform a 360 check again after 10-15 minutes to ensure that the gel pad has not moved.	<input type="checkbox"/>