When do the results appear ?

Visible results may be immediate, and they may appear over time in the course of your body's natural collagen rebuilding process. For most patients, measurable results appear gradually in the 2 to 6 months following a treatment session.

How long do they last ?

Results can last years depending on your skin condition and the aging process. Volnewmer does not stop the aging process, but it does slow it down for a while.

What it means 'Painless' ?

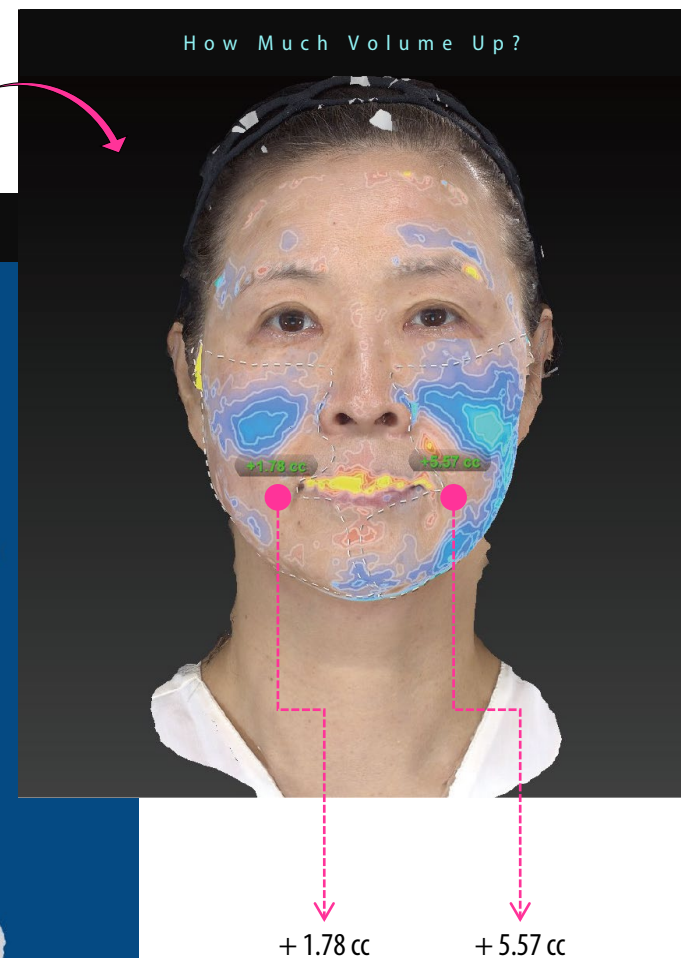

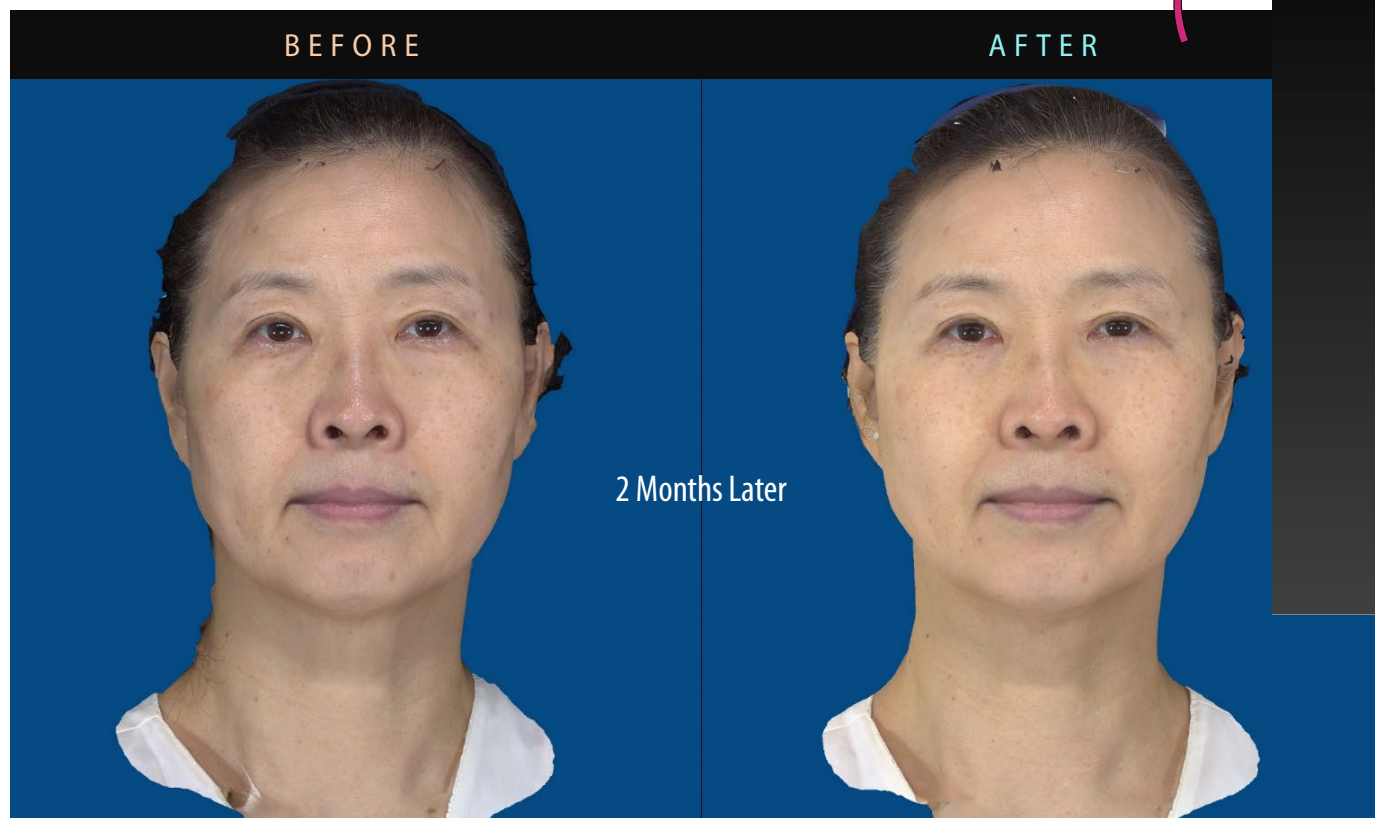

Some people experience minor swelling or redness after treatment. These side effects typically subside within 24 hours. Overall, Volnewmer is an extremely safe treatment option.

What about the recovery time and no downtime ?

There is no downtime required after your VOLNEWMER treatment. Your face will appear normal after the treatment. Your skin will also feel a little smoother right after the treatment. Since this is a completely nonsurgical method for skin tightening, patients can return to their normal activities immediately.
